Intercity Lines named Official Transporter of the Minuteman Section of the Mercedes-Benz Club of America

March 5, 2011 - The Minuteman Section of the Mercedes-Benz Club of America (MBCA), a non-profit Mercedes-Benz automobile enthusiasts' club with 600 members in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, announced today that Intercity Lines, headquartered in Warren, MA has been named "The Official Transporter of the Minuteman Section", according to Section President, John S. Piekarczyk.

The Minuteman Section of the MBCA brings automotive enthusiasts together through the sponsorship of social, automotive, technical and driving events fostering friendship, sharing and knowledge of the automotive heritage of the Mercedes-Benz automobile.

"Intercity Lines was the first enclosed automotive transporter and for 31 years has set the standard for the industry," said Piekarczyk. "They have been the title sponsor for our Germanfest Concours d' Elegance held at Larz Anderson Auto Museum in Brookline, MA since 2008 and truly understand the passion of automobile enthusiasts across the country for the hobby and demonstrate excellence in all that they do. "We are pleased to partner the best automobile enthusiast club with the best transporter in the country," said Piekarczyk.

"We are very pleased to partner with the Minuteman Section and look forward to serving its' members with their transportation needs," said David Wilson, President of Intercity Lines. "As a Mercedes enthusiast myself, I appreciate all that the Minuteman Section does for its' members and look forward to joining them in many of their Club events."
